A Note From Mr. Caldwell:

October is here! The Super Bees have been hard at work the month of September! I am truly proud of our students and staff! It has been wonderful to see our students doing a great job showcasing the three R's being respectful, responsible, and ready! We have some exciting things planned for this month! I am looking forward to seeing our Super Bee community at this year's Fall Literacy Festival and supporting our fall classroom celebration costume parade!

Fall Literacy Festival: We are looking forward to seeing you at our first Literacy Fall Festival! We are going to celebrate reading and literacy! Mark your calendars and plan to join us on October 26, 2019 from 3:00pm to 5:00 for an afternoon of community, learning, food, and fun!

Fall Classroom Celebrations: Our fall classroom celebrations will take place on October 31, 2019. We will send a flyer with final details. Just a few reminders in support of our classroom celebrations.

- Snacks: If you would like to send in a snack please be sure is a store purchased individually sealed treat. Treats can be dropped off in the office in the morning before school or sent with your child.
- Costumes: Students are permitted to bring their costumes to school. However, they should not arrive to school dressed in their costumes. Students will change into their costumes before the start of the party. Costumes should be school appropriate--no scary or violent characters.
- Parade: We invite you to come to our costume parade. We are asking parents to line the sidewalk boulevards and enjoy watching our students parade around our loop.

Art to Remember: Students in Mrs. Fogal and Mrs. Murphy's art classes are working on art projects that will be available for order. Art to Remember partners with parents and schools to preserve children's artwork and support art education through custom-printed keepsakes. Watch for more information coming home in the next few weeks!

Note from Title I Parent Facilitator, Brenda Savonne:

My role here is to increase parent involvement in their children's educational journey. I am a liaison between parents and school staff. The Literacy Academy at Cleveland has attainable goals for improved performance for which we have the resources. I can assist you in accessing those tools for your kids' advantage.

Feel free to call me at 984-6500 (ext. 2989). This is an effort sponsored by Title I which can have long lasting results!

Occasionally you may find it necessary to remove your child from school before the end of the regular school day. If you are picking up your child for early dismissal:

- Send a note to the teacher so preparations can be made. If an emergency situation makes this impossible, a phone call to the school office will suffice, preferably before 3:00 p.m.
- Come to the office and sign them out in the book on the counter. Your child will be called from the classroom at that time to meet you in the office.
- Your child must be released to someone who is listed on their Emergency Contact form - we do ask for verification of their identity if we do not recognize them. To insure the safety of the children placed in our care, it is essential that parents follow these procedures.
- Early dismissals after 3:00 p.m. are extremely disruptive to the whole classroom. We ask that you refrain from picking your child up after that time unless it is an emergency.
